Our Impact

Individual

"I want to share with you my achievement of obtaining my American citizenship. I am very grateful to the entire team of teachers and staff at the Richardson Adult Literacy Center.. You are truly changing our lives." (Marilyn)

"RALC has been an invaluable tool in my journey to learn English. This has been my fourth semester, and throughout each semester, I've improved my reading, comprehension, and writing skills." (Alain)

Family

"Now I am able to talk with my supervisor, and help my daughter on her homework." (Sara)

"I understand more when a person speaks English (especially my son's teachers). I feel happy when I can read a book to my child in English..." (Maribel)

Community

"It's easier for me now to approach people and ask about something, in a store, in a line, at a gas station, in a hospital, I feel more confident." (Olga)

"RALC helps me connect with people from other cultures and improves my chances of getting a better job in the future. It makes me feel more confident and proud..." (Lesly)

Workplace

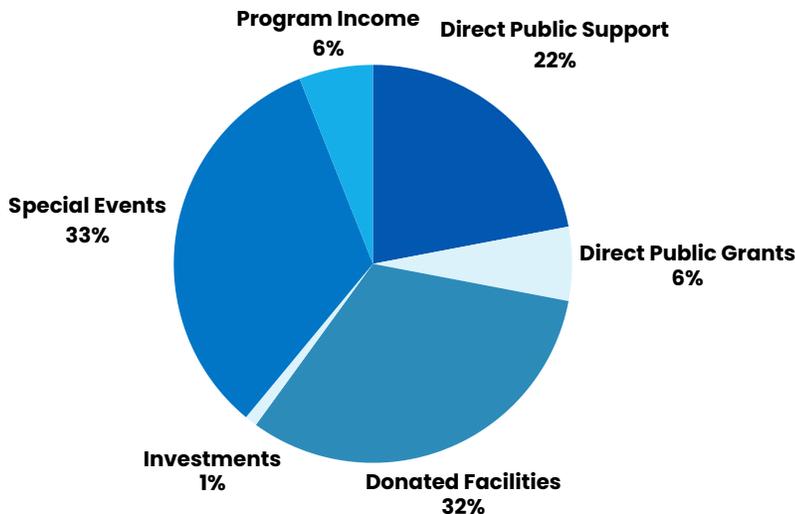

"I am able to speak with my customers much better." (Samuel)

"Now, I am able to talk more with other people, I can order in the restaurant, and write with my boss in the company." (Carla)

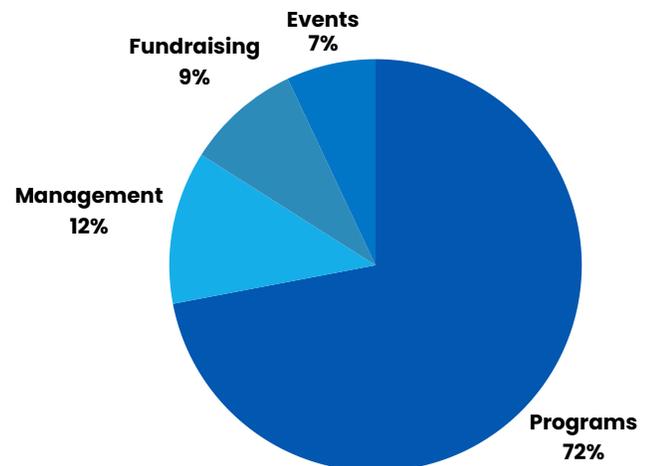

"Now, I am able to talk with other people in English. I can communicate with my supervisor and co-worker at [my]job." (Lianet)
